

SOCIETY DANCE TO AID HOME FOR BOYS

Mrs. Frederick Edey Gives Her
House for Subscription
Affair To-night.

DINNER FOR MISS PELL

Miss Julia Newbold Decides to Have No Bridal Attendants.

Mrs. Frederick Edey of 10 West 100th street has given the use of her home for a subscription dance to-night for the benefit of the Infants' Home for Boys, which is to be held at 10 West 100th street, N. Y. C.

Several debutantes of this season are expected to be present, for which they have been given $2,000. Miss Julia Newbold is president of the association and the other officers are: Mrs. Edey, Miss Margaret Overton, Miss Helen Underwood, Miss T. J. Oakley Rhineland, and Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhineland.

After a dinner to-night at their home, 26 West 100th street, for the bride and groom, Miss Julia Newbold has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Miss Julia Newbold, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newbold, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Following the marriage of the bride and groom, relatives will be present at the wedding and there will be no reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Allen of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell Dewey have arrived at the Plaza from Paris. Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp will also be at the Plaza from Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Burritt of 26 West 100th street, who will be married to Mr. Richmond Cross on April 19, at the home of her parents, 26 West 100th street, has decided to have no bridal attendants. John W. Pell, who will be married to Miss Julia Newbold, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pell and her wedding will take place at their home, 26 West 100th street.

Weather Forecast—Cloudy, Probably Rain.

ROSE DERBY AT FLOWER SHOW.

New Red Orchid and 150 Kindergarten Children Arrive.

The gladiolus was to have had the center of the stage at the flower show at the New York Central Palace yesterday, but a train from the South on which the blooms were shipped ran behind schedule and so the gladiolus was not in the show. The center of the stage was taken by the new red orchid, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Perhaps the most attractive exhibit to those who visited the palace yesterday was the group of roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

Assembly of the roses, each containing 500 specimens, prize in the American Rose Society, which is the 'Rose Derby' of the American amateur and commercial growers. The first prize of $250 was won by A. N. Thompson of Cromwell, Conn. The judges awarded the second prize to W. W. Wells, a London specialist, brought the bud over in his trunk ten days ago and all the orchid growers had been waiting to inspect the new flower.

OBITUARY.

Harry Tappan.

HENRIETTA, L. I., April 9.—Harry Tappan, who was widely known as a raiser of polo ponies and who supplied polo ponies to the Meadow Brook Club and other clubs on Long Island, died yesterday at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

John H. Van Buren.

HACKENSACK, April 9.—John H. Van Buren, who had lived here since 1892, died today at his home, 323 Main street, New York City. He was 78 years of age and was born at Saddle River, N. J. He came here on Saturday with a carload of polo ponies which he was anxious to sell to the men who are to take part in the polo match in June. He had nearly arranged for the sale of twenty ponies to the English team.

ADDISON BROWN DIES; WAS NOTABLE JUDGE

Supreme Court Praised Many of His Decisions in Admiralty Law.

A GREAT BOTANIST TOO

In Last Illness He Revised His Big Work on American Flora.

Ex-Judge Addison Brown, who sat on the bench in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York twenty years prior to 1901, when he resigned, died yesterday at his home, 45 West Eighty-ninth street, in his eighty-fourth year. He was recognized as an authority on admiralty law and many of his decisions in extradition proceedings and bankruptcy cases have been followed for years. In his judicial career he handed down over 1,800 decisions.

Judge Brown was one of the founders of the New York Botanical Garden. He was its president for the last two years. In his last illness, which extended over a year, he completed a revision of his work, "Illustrated Flora of the United States and Canada," in three volumes, published with Nathaniel L. Britton, 1896-98. His enthusiasm for botanical research never waned.

Judge Brown was born in West Newbury, Essex county, Mass., on February 21, 1830. His ancestors included the Rev. John Rogers, president of Harvard in 1802, and Thomas Dudley, second Governor of Massachusetts. He went to Amherst College in 1848 and in the following year entered the sophomore class of Harvard, from which he was graduated second in rank in 1852.

He got an LL.B. degree at the Harvard Law School in 1855 and that year began the practice of law in New York City in the office of Brown, Hall & Vanderpoel. After practicing on his own account for two years he entered the firm of Stanley, Langdon & Brown, and in 1881 resigned to accept an appointment as United States District Court Judge as successor to Judge William G. Chase, who had died.

Judge Brown drew up the charter of the New York Botanical Garden and for many years he was one of its scientific directors. He was also president of the Torrey Botanical Club of New York, H. B. Silliman, President of the New York Geographical and Historical societies, the Century and Metropolitan clubs and the Sons of the American Revolution. He was a trustee of the Bradford Female Seminary. Judge Brown leaves a widow and four children.

PATRICK MCGOWAN'S FUNERAL.

Cardinal Farley Attends Services
Held for Ex-Alderman.

The funeral of Patrick P. McGowan, ex-president of the Board of Aldermen, who died on Sunday night, was held yesterday morning in St. Ann's Church, in East Twelfth street. Thousands of friends attempted to enter the church. Fifty policemen held in check those who could not get in.

The requiem mass was celebrated by the Rev. Thomas W. Churchill and the entire Board of Education gathered in a body in the funeral procession from the McGowan home to the church. The pallbearers included Dr. Charles H. Chetwood, Louis Storch, Thomas M. Mulry, John Whelan, C. L. Dwyer, Mr. Churchill, Franklin Simon, T. J. Murphy, Deputy Police Commissioner James A. Dillon, H. J. Curran, Michael J. Hagan, John W. McGowan and William H. Hagan.

Among those who attended the funeral and the interment at Calvary cemetery were Charles P. Murphy, Justice Gersbach, John Curran, Michael J. Hagan, John W. McGowan and William H. Hagan.

Memorial services were held at the same time at Washington Irving High School, where McGowan was well known and greatly admired.

William W. Borden.

Chicagoan Went to Egypt to Re-come a Missionary.

Chicago, April 9.—William W. Borden, who recently announced his intention of devoting his life and fortune to missionary work, died yesterday at his home, 22 Madison street, Brooklyn, in his seventy-first year. He was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. He was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

George W. Street.

George W. Street, head of the old Street manufacturing works firm of 2 Maiden lane, died yesterday at his home, 92 Jerusalem street, Brooklyn, in his seventy-first year. He was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. He was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Franklin B. Lewis.

Franklin B. Lewis, a veteran of the Burlington county bar, died yesterday at his home, 92 Jerusalem street, Brooklyn, in his seventy-first year. He was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. He was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Miss Sophie Sulling.

Miss Sophie Sulling, who for over twenty years taught school in downtown Manhattan, died yesterday at her home, 22 Madison lane, Brooklyn, in her seventy-first year. She was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. She was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Miss Sophie Sulling.

Miss Sophie Sulling, who for over twenty years taught school in downtown Manhattan, died yesterday at her home, 22 Madison lane, Brooklyn, in her seventy-first year. She was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. She was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Miss Sophie Sulling.

Miss Sophie Sulling, who for over twenty years taught school in downtown Manhattan, died yesterday at her home, 22 Madison lane, Brooklyn, in her seventy-first year. She was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. She was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Miss Sophie Sulling.

Miss Sophie Sulling, who for over twenty years taught school in downtown Manhattan, died yesterday at her home, 22 Madison lane, Brooklyn, in her seventy-first year. She was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. She was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Miss Sophie Sulling.

Miss Sophie Sulling, who for over twenty years taught school in downtown Manhattan, died yesterday at her home, 22 Madison lane, Brooklyn, in her seventy-first year. She was born in Norway, Conn., and had long been a resident of Brooklyn. She was a member of the Hamilton Club, the Veteran associations of the Seventh and Twenty-third Regiments, and the G. A. R. A son, George A. Borden, died of pneumonia last week.

Miss Sophie Sulling.

Important Forthcoming Public